

PDAO MONTHLY PROGRAM

Orange Citizens v. Milan

What does it mean for zoning and general plan inconsistencies?

City of Orange Community Development Director William Crouch and City Attorney Wayne W. Winthers will discuss this recent State Supreme Court decision that sets important precedent for the role that the General Plan plays in determining and controlling current land use.

When:

Thursday, January 26, 2017

Where:

City of Orange Public Library - Community Room

407 E Chapman Ave, Orange, CA 92866
(The Community Room is best accessed from the rear of the building off the parking lot.)

Check-in from 11:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Program from 12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

JOIN US!

Please RSVP no later than January 24, 2017 to Denise Cyprien at denisec@cityoffullerton.com

Payment of $25 per person is payable at the door by cash or check. No-shows will be billed.

www.pdaoc.org

Organized in 1981, the PDAO is a non-profit association with the primary purpose to provide a forum where planning and development issues can be presented and discussed leading to better coordination of planning objectives throughout Orange County, CA.

This program qualifies for 1.5 hours of CM Law credit.